

February Homework

Language Arts

1. Say the name February; How many letters are there? How many syllables?
2. Say the names of all of the months and count the syllables
3. Practice how you will share your 100th Day collection with the class
4. Discuss the problem in your Overnight Book and how it was solved
5. Write the names of 10 children in your class
6. Write each child's name on your Valentines
7. Make a list of things that start like Valentine
8. Make a list of things that start like February

Math

9. Write the numbers on your February calendar
10. Practice counting to 100 by 1's and 10's; can you count by 5's?
11. Look for Lincoln pennies in someone's pocket and count them; How much money is this?
12. Look at a dollar bill to see George Washington; can you read his name and the amount of money on the bill? How many words are printed?
13. Estimate how many tires are in your garage then go count them
14. Help someone measure out food for a recipe
15. Count the number of white, blue and red t-shirts in your drawer now add up the total of these three colors

Other

16. Make your Valentines for the class
17. Hop on your right foot and then left foot for 10 times
18. Mail a Valentine to someone special; look closely at the address
19. Practice saying your name and address
20. Take a piece of paper and tear the shape of an animal; glue it onto another piece of paper and draw in details to complete the picture